Speaking For John

Joel Siegfried

John has served on City Council since January 1992. First, John was the Ward Nine Councilman and since June of 2001, as a Councilman at Large.

John has also served in the Council Leadership positions of President Pro-Tem and Vice-President. Since 2001, chaired the Council's Planning and Rules Committees. Prior to 2001, chaired the Budget & Finance, Public Utilities, and the Housing Committees.

During John's 16 years on Akron City Council, he advocated the City's Sexually Oriented Business ordinance, Rental Housing Registration ordinance, the Customer Service Request System/311 Call Center, the Automated Mobile Speed Enforcement System, and the development of the Mud Run Golf Course.

In addition to my City Council Service, John has continued to serve as:

Joel Siegfried's Much Younger Little Brother
Secretary, The Akron, Bath, Copley Hospital District Board

Director, Northern Ohio Golf Charities Board
(Bridgestone Invitational Golf Tournament)

Director, The First Tee of Akron Board
Member, The National League of Cities, Information & Technology Committee and the Central Cities Committee

Member, The Kenmore Ministerial Association

Member, The Long Range Planning Committee of First Presbyterian Church of Akron

Professionally, John has served as:

The General Manager of Glendale Cemetery
A Registered Representative of the Equitable Life Assurance Society

The Assistant Managing Director of the American Industrial Hygiene Association

Production Coordinator, Danner Press Corporation

BROTHERHOOD SONG

We are brothers, now and ever,
Until the day we die,
And when that time comes rollin' round
And we bid our last goodbye,
Th ere is one thing sure and certain,
Let us bow our heads in awe,
We'll meet again in Heaven sure,
In the name of PHI KAPPA TAU
